On February 4, Swedish International Development Minister Gunilla Carlsson announced that Sweden will send three police officers and four prison officers to the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH). Swedish aid to Haiti totals USD 29.4 million as of February 4, excluding the USD 60.3 million annual contribution that Sweden has already paid into the UN Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF). The Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency also currently has some 30 people in Haiti participating in various relief teams.
